What is a Winning 4-H Plan?

Parents of children with special needs may request a Winning 4-H Plan for their child. This plan helps 4-H volunteers and staff to understand and plan for the accommodations fundamental for successful participation of the child in club activities, projects, skillathon, judging, shows, camp and more. A Winning 4-H Plan Request Form is available at <http://Fayette.osu.edu>. Questions, please contact Lydia Ulry, 4-H Educator, ulry.9@osu.edu.

What Are The Behavior Expectations of 4-H Participants?

4-H Code of Conduct

- 4-H members, parents/legal guardians, and other adults participating in 4-H activities will:
 1. Adhere to program rules, curfews, dress codes, policies, and rules of the facility being used.
 2. Conduct themselves in a courteous, ethical, respectful manner, use appropriate language (including not using profanity), exhibit good sportsmanship, and provide positive role models.
 3. Abstain from illegal behaviors, use of alcohol, illegal or illicit drugs, tobacco in any form, and/or any vaping products during 4-H events and activities.
 4. Fully participate in scheduled activities.
 5. Respect other's property and privacy rights.
 6. Abstain from child abuse (physical and/or verbal) harassment, and actions that bully, ridicule, dominate, or display inappropriate behavior toward others.
 7. Accept personal responsibility for behavior, destruction or theft of property including any financial damage.
 8. Be responsible for any financial damage caused by inappropriate behavior.
 9. Adhere to rules of safety.
 10. I will uphold and support the responsible and lawful use of social media. In so doing, I will not create or post social media content that is abusive, threatening, defamatory, obscene, harassing, or creates a hostile environment.
 11. Follow the Ohio State University Standards of Behavior for Minor Participants Participating in Activities and Programs with Minor Participants.
- Consequences for violation:
 - Removal from participation in the event (at the individual's expense);
 - Sanctions on participating in future 4-H events;
 - Forfeiture of awards, financial earnings from the event;
 - Removal from offices/positions held, etc.
 - Behavior outside of 4-H activities can affect "member in good standing" or "volunteer in good standing" status.
 - It is the responsibility of all program participants to reinforce the code of conduct and intervene when necessary to enforce the rules.

4-H members and their parents/legal guardians must agree to the 4-H Code of Conduct as part of the 4-H Enrollment process.

What Are The Special Fair Requirements for Projects?

Quality Assurance: 4-H members with Market Beef, Market Dairy Steer, Market Hog, Market Lamb, Market Goat, Market Turkey, Market Chicken, Market Duck, Market Rabbits, Lactating Dairy Cows and/or Lactating Dairy Goats must complete the ANNUAL quality assurance (QA) no later than May 30 to show and/or sell at the Fayette County and/or Ohio State Fairs.

EquiSTEP: All 4-H horse project members will need to complete the on-line EquiSTEP program no later than May 30.

Dog, Horse and Shooting Sports Permission to Participate:

Members that enroll in these projects will be prompted to read and accept these permission to participate forms as part of the on-line 4-H enrollment process no later than March 1.

Skillathon and Project Judging: All 4-H members must participate in Skillathon/Project judging with an up-to-date current project book to complete their projects and be eligible to show at the Fayette County and/or Ohio State Fairs. If you need to make-up skill-a-thon or project judging, you must request a make-up time slot no later than June 11, 2025. Information and study materials can be found at Fayette.osu.edu under 4-H Youth Development>Skillathons

Health Requirements: All animals must be free of any contagious or infectious disease upon arrival and throughout Fair week. For specific requirements see the Fayette County Fair Book at fayettecofairoh.com

What Does My Child Need To Do in 4-H?

4-H Club Meetings

- Attend at least six 4-H club meetings and/or activities.
- Participate in community service, leadership, fundraising, recreational and/or educational activities.
- Come with a positive attitude eager to Learn by Doing the 4-H way through project work, public speaking and hands-on activities.
- Serve as a club officer, on a committee, as a Jr. Leader or mentor.
- Support club goals and activities.

For Projects

- Select at least one 4-H project to complete. Use 4-H Project Central on-line to get a sneak peak of each project or the 2025 4-H Project Guide.
- Meet all project requirements and guidelines. Refer to the 2025 Fayette County 4-H Requirement Guide on-line at <http://fayette.osu.edu>.
- Attend required programs for Fair participation, weigh-in, tag-in, notch sheet turn in, quality assurance (QA), EquiSTEP, skill-a-thon, project judging, etc.

For Skillathon & Project Judging

- Up-to-date Project Book: Required for all projects! Complete required sections to be eligible for County and State Fair participation. Make sure to include a feed tag/ration, quality assurance certificate & project experiences documentation. A current up-to-date project book is a REQUIREMENT to have a completed project eligible for FAIR!
- Project Interview: Prepare for a one-on-one interview with an adult to answer questions about your project and 4-H experience.
- Skillathon: All animal projects! Prepare to participate in four skill assessment stations. Use your project book, resource handbook, skill-a-thon study guide, quality assurance, clinics and workshops to prepare. Check out digital links at <http://Fayette.osu.edu>
- Miscellaneous Projects: Bring item made, created, produced, grown, or designed and/or visual educational display (tri-fold, poster, collage, etc.) to the judging & interview.
- Be Patient and Positive! While you wait for judging, review your project book, bring something to read or chat with a friend.
